OPVL SOURCE ANALYSIS

Interdisciplinary Project

O	P	V	L
Origin	Purpose	Value	Limitation
✓ Who created this source? ✓ When was it written or published? ✓ Where was the source produced? ✓ What type of document is it?	✓ Why was this source written? ✓ Who is the audience? ✓ What ideas or feelings was the author trying to express or evoke? ✓ Is the point of view impartial?	✓ How does this document help you understand the topic? ✓ How useful is it to my topic? ✓ Are you able to verify the information in another source?	✓ Why should you be careful trusting or using this source? ✓ Are there biases (personal, political, religious, etc?) ✓ What does the text omit that is important to your research?

Analysis

+ Imagine you are researching the definition and effects of Global Warming.

+ Answer the OPVL analysis for this source:

https://education.nationalgeographic.org/resource/global-warming/

O	P	V	L
Origin	Purpose	Value	Limitation